Recruitment
Get to know each Sorority chapter

Formal Recruitment is set up so that each interested woman can get to know each sorority chapter before deciding which organization is best for her. If you decide to go through Formal Recruitment, you will move into your residence hall a week before school starts in the fall (the same as Opening Week for new freshman).

Participate in social events

During recruitment weekend, you will visit all chapters and get to know women from each one. Each day consists of planned social events. Sisterhood Day allows the sorority women to show off their unique houses with tours and Philanthropy Day focuses on each chapter’s service work. These socials will help you figure out the goals, values and personality of each sorority on campus – and help you decide which chapter is best for you.

Keep in mind that Recruitment is a mutual selection process, so while you are deciding which chapters you feel most comfortable with, the women in each chapter are also trying to figure out which women fit best into their organization. We understand that Greek life is not right for everyone, and we respect those differences. The women you’ll meet during recruitment can help you find other ways to get involved on campus!

Your Recruitment Counselor, or “Rho Gamma” for short, will be one of the first people that you meet during Formal Recruitment Week. Your Rho Gamma is a sorority woman that has been chosen to help potential members experience recruitment weekend in the most positive way possible. She meets the high standards of leadership, knowledge, and values needed to guide you during Formal Recruitment. She has been trained by the Panhellenic Council and will answer your questions about recruitment.

Your Rho Gamma will have no contact with her sorority during Formal Recruitment Week. She will keep all of your questions and problems confidential. It is important that you attend meetings with your Rho Gamma because she will have important information to give you. She will also be a shoulder to lean on when decisions get tough and always be ready to lend an empathetic ear, as she went through recruitment just like you!

Welcome! A Message from a Panhellenic Woman

Hello! My name is Sarah Piburn and I have been on the Panhellenic Council for two years. Before going through Primary Recruitment the fall of my freshman year, I was unsure if Greek Life would be a good choice for me. I had heard all of the stereotypical opinions about sororities, and didn’t know if I would fit in. I had a friend that joined a sorority, who I knew to be the opposite of those stereotypes and I decided to give it a try. My decision to join a sorority has been one of the best choices of my college career and has positively impacted me in so many ways. Greek Life at S&T isn’t your typical cookie cutter sororities, it is filled with unique women who not only succeed academically at a challenging school, but who are leaders on campus, give back to our community, as well support each other unconditionally. Greek Life pushes me everyday to be a better woman, whether it be my sisters encouraging me to run for a position, going to get ice cream with me after a hard test, or making me feel good by laughing at my dumb jokes.

There are three Panhellenic sororities on our campus: Chi Omega, Kappa Delta, and Zeta Tau Alpha. As a community, we place academic excellence at the top of our priorities, with each sorority striving to improve their overall GPA each semester. Each sorority is also highly involved with their individual philanthropy, which includes Prevent Child Abuse America, Make-A-Wish Foundation, and Breast Cancer Awareness. We are proud to work closely with the Interfraternity Council, the National Pan-Hellenic Council, and the Greek Independent Board to better the Greek community for all involved.

Formal recruitment is a great way not only learn about MS&T sororities but meet incoming freshman women as well. There is no obligation to join a house at the end of recruitment and if nothing else, this is a great opportunity to meet other women on campus. If you have any questions, concerns or doubts about Greek life please feel free to contact anyone on the Recruitment Team or a other women on campus. If you have any questions, concerns or doubts about Greek life please feel free to contact anyone on the Recruitment Team or a other women on campus.

Thank you for your interest in Greek Life at Missouri S&T!

Philanthropy Day

DAY ONE: Visit all three sororities and participate in service projects that benefit our national or local philanthropies.
DOS: Caps, shorts, casual skirts, jeans, sandals/flats
DONTS: T-shirts, formal dresses, dress shoes, gym shorts, spaghetti straps

Sisterhood Day

DAY TWO: You will have the chance to get to know each woman and chapter better. Learn about what each chapter has to offer while getting a tour of the house. Attire is dressier than day one.
DOS: Casual dresses, skirt suits, sandals/dress shoes
DONTS: Shorts, formal dresses, tennis shoes

Preference Day

DAY THREE: You will return to the sororities and really get to know the women as you decide which chapter is the best fit for you. Attire is the most formal on this day.
DOS: Dresses, dress shoes, slacks
DONTS: Pants/homecoming dresses, casual dresses

Why join a sorority?

Sisterhood

Sisterhood is the key to the closeknest members in each chapter share. A sorority will become your home away from home. Working together towards common goals strengthens the bond within each chapter as well as builds relationships with other chapters. Sharing your college experience with a wide variety of sisters will provide you with amazing friendships that will last a lifetime.

Scholarship

Greek women at S&T know they are here first and foremost for an education. S&T sororities pride themselves on their academic accomplishments and strive to maintain this exemplary status. Chapters have GPA requirements to remain in good standing and be eligible to participate in activities. Each chapter has a scholarship program that offers mentors, tutors and study breaks.

Leadership

Each sorority chapter is self-governed and offers its members an opportunity to improve leadership skills. At S&T, sorority women are well represented in numerous campus organizations including honorary professional, social and service societies. Greek students make up approximately 29% of the campus population, but hold nearly half of the leadership positions in S&T’s 200+ student organizations.

Service

S&T sororities believe civic responsibility is important and that giving back to others makes the world a better place. Sorority women are dedicated to making a difference on campus and in the community.
