

Potential Recognized Student Organization Membership Roster

Individuals listed on this roster should include S&T students who are interested and committed to joining this organization if recognition status is attained. It is important to note that groups with a membership primarily consisting of seniors may be asked to reassess their recruitment strategies by the Recognition Committee before RSO status is recommended.

Please note: It takes 10 members for an RSO to gain recognition. Please specify at least a Presidential and Financial position for your organization.
